

---

Penn Literacy Network*What it is:

- research-based professional learning and curricular enhancement
- learning forum for school leaders, coaches, and classroom teachers
- opportunity for leadership teams to collaborate with staff to support school reform and other initiatives

How it works:

- regional seminars facilitated by experienced educators
- sustained professional development around literacy and learning in all classrooms
- collaboration on increasing student engagement & achievement

What you get:

- Act 48 hours/4.5 graduate credits through the University of Pennsylvania at no charge to you
- multiple opportunities to work and learn with colleagues from your school and neighboring districts
- support for increasing student achievement